The shuttle buses will wait up to 10 minutes for participants before setting off. Due to heavy rush hour traffic in the area of the meeting venue at Quorum, participants are strongly advised to leave the venue after 7 p.m. instead of immediately after the meeting ends at 6 p.m.

8. The Quito authorities will facilitate the movement of these vehicles by providing reserved routes and motorcycle escorts.

III. Local currency

9. Participants are advised to obtain or request bills of no more than US$ 20, since it may be difficult to use higher-denomination notes outside the hotels. Major credit cards are accepted at most hotels, restaurants and other businesses.
IV. Local weather and time

10. The rainy season is between October and May. In November, temperatures in Quito typically range between 9°C and 19°C, and the weather can suddenly change from sunny and hot to rainy and cold. Participants are therefore advised to pack raincoats, hats, sunglasses, scarves and umbrellas. During the first 48 hours upon arrival in Quito, participants are advised not to drink alcohol, to avoid physical exertion and to stay hydrated, so as not to suffer the effects of altitude.
